OM JAYERS-BEAT-THE TIPTON SLA es The Story of a famous fight.

ring, which was frubtful, the little one

The Slasher Was

me vividia se i svrte.

secure the riginarie of the points in enough for your run, after all? Table the house train the passengers jumped; all engerness agors to the measurer, which was lying at put ye on board in a jiffey?' filled the air with discordant notes.

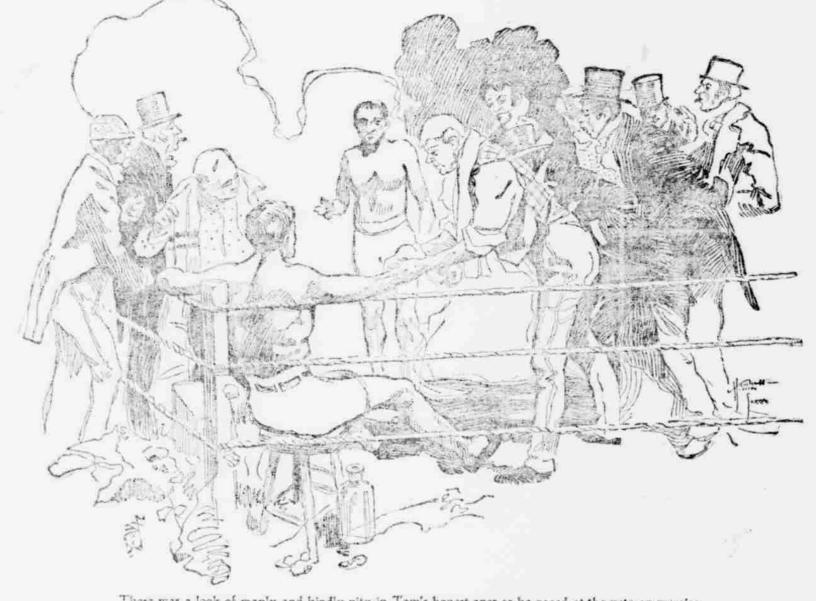

The Crowd Knew. A

After a short run to sea the order was given to "'bout ship," and it was all the Isle of Grain that the support dropped anchor at met. Porthwith, as if by muric. there was a double of small boate swarming round the staumer, while I splid was trul the shores of the bound were provided with people. Who had given them "the office"? More could they have known the fight was to be there? Whence had they all dome? You might as well ask how the vultures Boant the currains of a dring curred in the borrors of disconvergation, the most dis-

There was a general ruth for the spot described becomes ing the states. Only Miruch. But the huge crowd eventually set- fact, he was only eight-and-thirty. tied down tote samething like order-a slop-

Squared With

& Sovereign & Just at this moment some scare was cre-

There was a look of manly and kindly pity in Tom's honest eyes as he gazed at the veteran warrior.

escuri of my old friend. Henry Downes about to commission the contest, when there as a counter hitter to stail off and battle littles author of "Population," and then on was a cry of "The hobbles! the babbles! all the attacks. I heard him make that church Street Station. The scene dispers above, for five men in blue courts, while solved the good store of his resolve, if he rance to the station, the crowd of swells, the riving ground some few housests saids who know what the perces to the ticket office, we harmon with the "sheduble" that followed NIt. en the platform; the desperate alterague to eld and roune stant and thin, emply and colla round the purposer the moment he a fee like this before. All his other opand the assemble of the recognic who made ; coughe, all subsiting for their fives toward. server of the commonting passengers, for fruitty harte, rolling into dischor, emother It was an ardinary train wamen erreated ing themselves with allow primaring water ing and almost fainting with fright, as its p into the water in their feverith enter swarms of the proken-mared man layeded note to get aftest occa more. I hauch now the carriages in which they were peace us I recall the scene, though it was no fully scaled-all these things come back to laughing matter then-it was a case of the But, of course. You was not described then at less the train started and we see ... but time to take stock of the homograph that there must have been been stocked time to take stock of the homograph that the coupt and time to take stock of the homograph that the coupt and time to take stock of the homograph that the coupt and time to take stock of the homograph that there must have been considered where courses negative. tied ourselves down as had we could in the the retreat. The great thing way to get the ersonned compartment. At every station we combintents on board the stermer, and this with the Tipton's exception for over and passed it was noticed that a policeman was was successfully accomplished, to the in- over again by misjoined his distance in the on duty, ready to seize the commetance of tense disport of the Podce Sergrant and he could only identify them, but metter of his more, who had evidently mount to secure Survey, when, even if the tatter had stood even story of talent and of character. His them was rights. The Tipton Stacker was the principals. As the discussived bothics will the blows would not have reached hard was read for Republic resilers last pleked up at Tubury, whither he had gone stood in the ambantement grains at the everitgit. Surers was, I believe, in the steamer in the effing they were mereliously frain, but disguised. It was a journey for shafted by the sportenen in the bush of anxiety for the directors of the anneal- "Yah! Mr Sergrant, you thought you'd not tion, for it totals prove no easy matter to 'em. stidu't your Well, what have you got Once more we were affind. Throthicas and last Southend was reached, said out of the bispress with mires" most of us, and not in the best of tempera Our shipper stored Laughed. to get to the ship which and been chartened fowerd the opposite side of the river, and for the veyage. Bouts of every description, after skirting the share for a few inflorcame to the water's edge to carry the way: stopped opposite some fields, with a quiet farmhouse in the center, from which a & shert distance from the shure, and the sheep dog rushed out and fork I furl-outs Wices of scores of heatmon singles out. Here a landing was offered, and the farmer This way to the steamer, fere ye are, gir; on white had we were proved to be a good sort and keep shortunan. He offered to tend a meadow at the buck of a row of sheds, which shearened it from the sight of passing ships, and if I remember eightly, all he asked for the accommodation was a good place near the ropes, where he might have a fair view of the fight.

Remarkable

Differences. I have often seen big men pitted against Stile men in the ring, but I have been been was on this occasion. The "Stastise" looked Green scores of sulles away, and are round pounds. But the more statement of his clod every one to solve. the wrescored erecture in awarmer before the column I have never mean a himself in his absence efforts to get ut "The thumb is fine. It individualizes. It broader mun or one with such home shoul-Agreeable of all the discomforts essentiated der startes. There was not an sunne of with a trip down the giver in the good old superfluous flesh on thin accuming this there was mention or no many to account to a Safy half a dezen such pyrmies as Sayers. Tom slevely docked under his arm, and the er, as his punts would be free to form their descried names and in the states. Only the stiffeds, indeed, was unguists, eating to any descript under the arm, and the those who had purchased travels for the transferrents is annex its last state. those who had purchased to the to a deformity in one or his leas, which was with value; but for had disappeared like has ring or sore him towns in their she had seen him a physician in the first should be should b Bear the ropes of the twenty-four rood rentangle. But lies of straw were provided at privot-like up that crowled plu. When he tangle. But less of strate were provided at suffect the effect was alterally, for all sile conjuding tricks were too much for his dust a shifting a bundle for the series to sit upper front tests had been knowed det, bride to comprehend. Then he should be inten of wealth; it is of secondary conmen An this shile buys around with him and you would plainty see on his brown, head arowing from one of the crowd the subtraction with him. Still, he is economical, her knives were cutting away the sing tightly drawn skin the white scame and account remark. This no good shaking gress in and around the arena, while the stars that told of grids wounds in many rear pudding head, Stanter, There and Is thoughtful of the rings of pudding head, Stanter, There and I hand of peace and pointy. percha stups, were swearing and shading is bard-fought fray. He moked the veteran nothink in it." M the storoughing grows like the rathe of all over, but a tough and hardy veteran hall came the smark, smark, smark of the And to one who did not know his age would. The Slasher's whips on the tops of hous and heads, min- have set little down as less than two or Dignity. gled with the cathe of the stringer and tre three and forty, though, as it matter of When I saw him out his great arms up.

the amphilisenter of heads-those nearest and saw Tom suyers advance toward him, I wait for his man, but the Simber thought to the ring lying down, those further be | wondered how on earth the little follow way Ford standing up and the moti behind going to get at him, Hat Tom lanked equal booked him, as the bigger man, to chose Taked upon improtopic platforms, for to anything that was possible to much, this bumptions little bontam and chastles which expense per bend was charged, Johnsy (lideon has assured my that Savers him So he went on the same old tack, though whether it was always paid is quest did not weigh an currer more than two pounding at the air, and getting occasionally eted by a farm taburer, who guilloped up on particular place, but the strength was even. Sayers fair and squire on the forehead. cart horse and canted to know what "we by distributed everywhere in the fine broad and he went down like a pole-axed bul-

that there must have been something wrong | most indictors unnuer and let drive at blin. For Tone did not stend will He led week by G. E. Laroge, refretelthe stupped, distributing and effective merry of Mr. Pryan's found Mr. Laroge says: "It same round the range tile, pushing and winds is of the type which resimuse call mixed. et the old one point up short and sant, The head foight one, and Jean't man goo. The head fired is square, while the fingers mitthin about looks a -- daming modes?

But Tom only laughed, he was blding his time. The Singler would not learn window good astronomen. from experience. Knowing his own vort have got it home. But there came the rob The nimble-footed Thomas was always but of harm's way when the punderous blowcame hurtiing through the sir at his head. has great consideration for others. I shall never forget the suspying and wrath colored projections I have never area a figure. Tom began to let himself go. He is long, firm, sloping. It gives dignity and Tare Parker and Macdonald again and again arged their principal to stand and that would be beneath his dignity. It hedid not weigh an course more than two positions amands in the face to remind him sever heats around the bush, but says what ing away fifty pounds in weight and how hard his adversary could hit Now and nearly five inches in height Yet Tum was then, indeed, the Slasher stopped some of cheerful and his comittion was superh, He Tom's straight and swift returns very clevwas nest and clean made from head to beel, erry, but only once did he get one of his There was no great display of muscle in any own terrific slogs home. The blow caught of a serious nature. was a-doin' of on his measter's ground." | shoulders, the compact icins, the well turned | lock. Every one involuntarily gave vent to | has the necessary characteristics."

This gentlemen was aquired with a ser- areas the snewy legs Still, selmirable spec- | n cry-balf of surprise, half of consterns- , elipsed or fineged. When at last the mighty testit, and that was the Staties binned, creign, and stayed to see the fun. When for he staked all he had in the world on at last the two herons of the hour cann at the insue its world he had in the world on at last the two herons of the hour cann at the insue its world his patient house in Spen is need by his seconds and bettlebelier, out to have the insue its world he had in the world on an invested every fairning tring corpethage appeared at the funding the great into the insue its world have known for the insue its world have known for the state of the insue its world not need to the insue its w of the proceeds in bucking himself, the there were found above as they found their or find made no server of what his own street one some up to the scratch smillion.

some dogged, fruitless manner as before ply playing into the hands of his crafty an-ninth round. It was amazing how eleverly his seconds removed the marks of punish-ment, but it was beyond their power to con-

Sajers during the hintle how we he to sage the glant tottered and fell. His sec-ficht such a thing? And the Shapher, in onds carried him to his corner and plied part of it was enough to enable bim to ea gle dexterous twist of the body bulked the gan to tell. Three tegrific facers in the ninch over of the stakes and champion of Enground made the hoge frame of the Slowher | land after a buttle which had lasted one reel and univer, till, after a lone stancer, bour and forty-two coluntes. he has his balance and fell. This was the I was close to the Sinsher's corner when beginning of the end. Gurlly, believe, would bits eleverious for came up and held out his every one have seen the old champles give hand A great sob shook the beaten glad-In, for it was plain to the dullest eye that later's east frame as his fingers closed be was descrid to Johns But defeat meant found the "auctioneer," which had so terriabsolute ruto to William Forry, and to eve bir manied bim, and there was a look of ery sugmention that he should strike her manty and kindly pity in "Tom's" honest fing he grouly rapiled that he should fight eyes as he gazed at the veteran warrior as long as he cand stand and see So, with whom he had desposled of his laurels.

He Reeled and Quivered.

mingled sorrow and anxiety we watched for the end. Sayers hit his man left and right in the face with such severity that was called their principal was ready to go to the scratch. But such an awful looking object did he look, with his incerated Upa of "Take him away; be's beaten! Send him home; don't let him fight any more! Don't Sayers stond in the center of the ring with his arms folded, and shrugged his shoulders, as much as to say, "What am I to do if he doesn't know when he is quickly forward held up his hand and called to Savers not to hit, as he should not allow the Slasher to fight any more. The brave old giant was anxious to make one more desperate bld for victory, but Owen would Presently the force of Savers's litting be up and "Tom" Savers was preclaimed win-

THE LATE SCOTT COOK, WHO, WITH HIS FAMILY, WAS LOST AT GALVESTON.

WRITTEN FOR THE SUNDAY REPUBLICA

The complete annihilation of W. Scott Cook and his family of six in th Galvesion storm deserves more than a passing notice.

W. Scott Cook was an elder brother of Sam B. Cook, the candidate on the Democratic ticket for Secretary of State, and was a man of many resources and strong character. He formerly resided in Warren County, Missouri, and · removed from there to the Indian Territe Army when a lad of 16, and cast his . family to Calveston, where he resided until death.

W. Scott Cook entered the Confederate Army when a lad of 16, and c fortunes with Ashby's taxalry. The history of that famous and during band of rough riders is the military history of W. Scott Cook. If you think it is not thrilling, read the official reports of Stonewall Jackson. Mr. Cook emerged from the Civil War safely, after many adventures and bardships, and was a passenger on the ill-fated steamer Stonewall Jackson, that was sunk in the Missistippi Silver in 1849, about 150 miles south of St. Louis. The main details of that deaster are atmost forgotten, but, after remaining in the water for over three hours and floating many miles down the river, Cook managed to save

W. Scott Cook is spoken of by those who knew him intimately as a genial 4 and courageous gentleman, who endeared all who knew him well in the clo B. P. THOMPSON.

BRYAN'S CHARACTER AS EXPRESSED BY HIS HAND.

Strong Points of the Future President Described by a Palmist.

The hand expresses much of the character of the individual. The strong man has a

"His dingers show that he is sturdily pracstrongth, he fett certain that one blow from that. He would be at home in simust any his missity fiet would unsence havers, and profession or business in life. The hand so, no doubt, it would have done could be shows that its owner possences accuracy, system, order, punctuality, executive ability and extraordinary communiting power. He "The third flager is indicative of a nature strong hand Mr. Reyan's hand tells its vary, one square, one rents, one percents He is wonderfully variantile, in one and the name hour he muy be beneat, actestific eluqueut. He would be at home in the scientille taboratory, and he might have been a of the Shasher whom, after one of the inut- deeply spicitual, reverent and airong in confectual aways. Tom stopped quirkly for-ward and sent in his left hang on his giver-has the power to hold sufferers to his call. sary's nowe with such wim that the glast. The finger indicates immense power of inting, and a second bars the blood gigshed. The neing others by writing and speaking, it from his nestrine. Then, for the first time, is timt of a scholar and philosopher, the I minn, the old man began to reading that easy, brilliant talker familiar with library, so impressed with the differ nos in size her there was danger about for he had mover introduce and postical economy. This finger dreamf that the "lattle 'an" could lift so and the thumb alone make him a man of hard And them too, the emericious real- many strong characteristics. The mount of mathematical first state of the track and the first state of the first street up to his gipenife for with what intellectual force a proof cautien, strength sectord to the onlockers the fractity of of will and decision. The second phalangs supermous uses an analysis frame, his there was noticed to be madners. The Tips of logic, the third a warm and affectionate to be made affectionate to be made affectionate to be made affectionate to be made affectionate. resinces. But it was sand apparent that about a supreme will, an irrestable power bats, were admitted within the provinged Bill knew well with ever wonderfol-quick, and allowed to take their places. Bill knew well with ever wonderfol-quick, and allowed to take their places and actility he could form and when the first he has the necessary physical strength. to bear, for many years, the strain of his exertions. He cares little for the accumuand is thoughtful of the future. His is the "The life line is well developed, showing him to be almost a stranger to sokness He will five to about the age of 65. There is more danger of accident than of stokness. The Hos of heart shows that he possesses excellent breathing power. He is calm and collected in times of excitement or danger, is warm-hearted and friendly, but, knowing his rights, dares maintain them. He reads the characters of those he meets is an excellent judge of human enture loves music and art and appreciates beauty.

he has to say and means it. The line of head shows self-reliance and extraordinary east-confidence. It may be that he will experfence some trouble with his teeth, but not Taken all in all the hand shows that its possessor will have a brilliant future, for he

Of the type which palmists call mixed. William J. Bryan's hand, on account of its wonderful lines and develop: ment, presents one of the most interesting studies to lovers and students of palmistry that has ever been secured. It denotes a strong man of strong character, sturdily practical and wonderfully versatile.